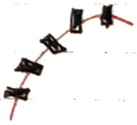
Good thinking. All the sup's came to take a look.

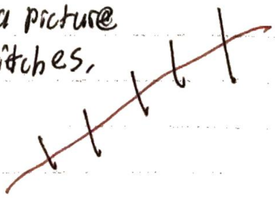
This shit storm was just getting started. Geri told me the ambulance was on it's way. All my friend's that were working around me told me "hang in their guy you'll be alright. They better take care of you. Jeremy someone I didn't expect to see told me "which foot did you hurt". It was left.

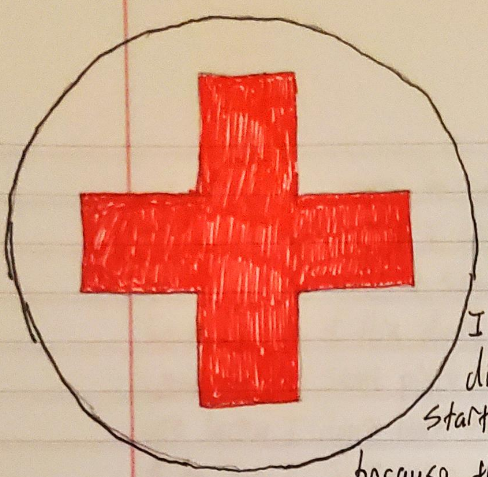
I don't know IF it's true or not but they told me it took the ambulance 30 minute's to show up. It felt like 30 minute's. The paramedic's had trouble getting to me. They gave them the address but the warehouse was huge. Not only that theirs only like 2 or 3 way's to get in. To top it all off there's a lot of exit's & entry's. There's door number's on the side & that's how they found me. And when they did get to me they couldn't get a gurney to me or a wheelchair. So I had to limp to the ambulance. Geri told me to keep her updated. I told the paramedic IF he could stop by my car so I can get my cellphone.

As I was in the ambulance I called Tom Thumb to tell them to take me off the schedule. When they answered the phone I said "How's it going? Is Elizabeth there? No. Is Melanie there? No. Is Sam there. No?" Who the fuck is running the store.



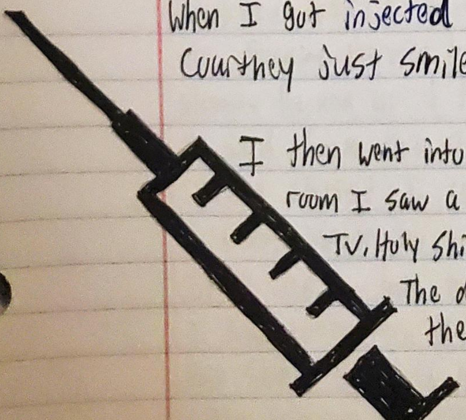
We get to the fucking hospital. So much blood came out that by the time I got the hospital my foot stopped bleeding. Ran out of blood. I said "See ya" to the paramedic's & I just waited for a doctor. The doctor come's in & told me IF I needed an interpreter? I said "No", they told me how did this happen? I then got some X-ray's taken. I seen them do it on TV. Where it like take's a picture & they put it up against a light. I then had to get stitches.





They gave me a shot of Pain killer's. I wish I could remember what it was called. I thought it was morphine but it was something else. When I was getting sewn up by this dude John I didn't really feel any pain but then. That shit started to fucking hurt. Homeboy told me it hurt because the skin was very sensitive, John poured this whole thing of antibiotic's on my foot, It looked like cough syrup in a container of pedialyte, I stung really bad, I actually told one of the nurse's Sheri IF she could hold my hand? I meant it as a joke. It took me by suprise when Sheri actually did hold my hand, I told Sheri I didn't want to break her hand, so she crossed her finger's. I started screaming damn it that fucking hurt, I swear everybody could hear me screaming a mile away, The medical staff told me to sit tight for surgery, one of the nurse's told me "do you wish you could go to sleep & never wake up"? I told her "Is that a joke"? She said "NO I'm being serious", I *said "NO",

As I was waiting to go into surgery I was in some serious pain, I tried not to call on the nurse but after a rush of pain I said fuck this shit, I called a nurse, When she came in, I said "What's your name"? She say's "Courtney". I say "Courtney this Pain is kicking my fanny can I please get some moar pain killer's? She went to go fetch some. When I got injected I was like you're an angel Courtney thanx, Courtney just smiled,



I then went into surgery, As they were putting me in the operating room I saw a fucking surgical lighthead. I seen these thing's on TV. Holy Shit that was bright. It was time to face the music. The doctor told me they were going to put me under the anaesthesia,

South Park N64

Black all I see is black

When I came to it was night, they pumped me full of so many drug's I felt like I was on acid. I was so fucked up on drug's that I tried eating a sandwhich & after like 3 bite's I puked it back up. Me & this dude Ramone got to talking, It turn's out we went to the same piece of shit school, Bryan Adam's. Those loser's are lucky I don't burn that place to the ground. I got out in 2008 & he got in in 2008. It's a small world after all. The next day the doctor stopped by to check on me. The surgery was a success.

And that's when I met Marvelous.

My Blue Heaven Taking Back Sunday

And it happen's all the time, I didn't think we were going to get along at first. Marvelous was giving me blood thinner & antibiotic's. She was also giving me my meds. I told Marvelous that she had a Marvelous name. She started laughing, Later I told her "thank's for taking care of me" She told me "Thank's for being a good Patient". Every hour there was a nurse assistant that would take my vital's. I remember telling one of the nurse's "What IF I flat lined, She said everybody would haul ass in here & try to save me. Later Marvelous was looking at picture's of my injury, I can't believe that didn't freak her out

IF I hated shit eating mutant's before my hate was amplified 100x. I had to do the physical therapy. And it fucking hurt. This fucking terruist bitch had me walk on my fucking foot that was already fucked up & had just got out of surgery the day before. I said fuck this shit & collapsed on a fucking chair. Jesus christ I can't believe that bitch. This curry eating loser said very impatiently your doing it wrong. I called another nurse & told her IF it was too late to get a shot of morphine. I couldn't get it because I had taken pain killer's early. I told the nurse "how do I make the pain stop?" She told me to take deep breath's, that shit eater shout right between the eye's bitch said she would not let me go without doing the physical therapy. I didn't know it at that time but the fucking hospital legally can't fucking do that. Just to shut that shit eating Miss Sunshine bitch up I did the physical ~~ther~~ therapy when the pain killer's finally kicked in.

Just before I was discharged Marvelous had to leave. She was about to be off the clock she stopped by to say see ya. I said "Thank for everything" & Marvelous was on her way. I talked to one of nurse's about how I was going to get home, I told her I was going to drive myself. She said I was on drug's & that I shouldn't do that. So I told her IF I could take a ~~lift~~ lyft. Homegirl I played her like a fiddle. I conveniently left out the part were I was going to take a lyft back to UPS to pick up my ride. One of the nurse's said I was clever because I had the bright idea of taking a picture of a name & phone number so I wouldn't ~~forget~~ forget it, This dude Bill dropped by & gave me a ~~the~~ foam leg rest,

I had to stop by the pharmacy to pick up some med's. I bullshitted w/ this dude who was pushing me around in a wheel chair. As I was nearing the exit I saw Romero, I told him I was getting out of here. It's a small world after all.

Before I left this dude showed me how to use the crutches. He also helped get all my shit in the lyft. When I got to UPS I had to swallow my pride & ask the driver for help. the drive home was pretty uneventful. That ~~nurse~~ ~~ma~~ nurse made it sound like I was going to wreak on the way. And that's when ~~my~~ my ese's started ripping on me. It was savage. The thing that blow's my mind is how they both said South Park "Cripple fight" w/ ever conspiring. Great minds think alike. This fucking nightmare was just getting started.

I had to go on emergency leave at Tom Thumb. When Elizabeth saw me the look on her face was like what the fuck, She said "What happened to You". I Smashed My foot. I told her [illegible] obviously I'm not going to be able to work tomorrow or the next day or the day after that, that & I need to pick up my med's.

CAUSE OF DEATH

PHYSICIAN DR. THOMAS
ADDRESS 5200 HARRY HINES

I started going to Concentra because they had a doctor who specializes in my type of injury, And this is where I met Iveth, she took my X-ray's & I had to have this plastic or whatever that shit was to protect me from the radiation. We started talking about UPS & how I fucked up the injury free day's & injury free bar b q, OK doc what's the condition, take an aspirin since I'm not getting any blood thinner & walk on my foot, the doctor told me to come back the next day since my foot wasn't looking good,

The next day I saw Iveth again, I had this habit of taking my mask off when I talk, Dr. Jones wasn't in I saw this other dude, IF my foot looked bad yesterday it ~~defini~~ definitely looked like shit today, Doctor take's one look & say's You need to get to a hospital pronto, I told Iveth & she call's Dr Jones. It was his day off & he was racing to get to Concentra, After 20 minutes I was starting to get antsy. I told Iveth ~~& she calls Dr. Jones, it~~ I'm outta here she told me hang on, What IF my fucking foot gets worst in the time it takes him to get down here, Iveth said another 20 minute's isn't going to kill me & to put my mask on, She called Dr Jones & said he's on his way & that IF I wanted to go I could, I almost bolted twice,

Then Dr Jones finally makes it & takes a look at my foot, Yeah I definitely need to get to a fucking hospital, I said see ya & went straight back to Parkland, Unlike the last time I had the ~~Prob~~ problem ~~of~~ of where the hell I was going to park? The parking garage across the street at the Southwest medical district? Fuck that shit I'm parking in the emergency parking, I didn't know it at ~~that~~ that time but it was emergency visitor parking, Getting in was a pain in the ass. You had to have a fucking mask on, I had to go through security, And getting there from the parking lot in crutches was a pain in the ass, Finally I get in & say my foot's infected. The chick at the front desk was awesome as hell she said we'll put you in priority, I then had to wait some moar in the damn waiting room, After like 20 minute's they finally call my name, Mr Garcia? Right here. they tell me What's the Matter? I Said Something's wrong W/ my foot, I finally get Put in a room, I was just chilling little bit of illing This little wiggy Watching A&E W/ any volume, someone comes along & Say's medical Staff is going to be in any minute now, When they did come in this chick started poking me in the foot W/ a needle, I didn't feel Shit, Christ I was fucked up.

Black Hawk Down

They told me they were going to operate on me the next day, I had to strip down to my birthday Suit so I could get into a gown, I can't believe they me take off my boxers, I got to keep them on the last time. As the Staff is Wheeling me to my room Who do I see?

Oh my God is that Marvelous, Even at Parkland I had the habit of talking W/ my mask off.

It was like that scene in Hannibal, Marvelous is that you? How You been? Marvelous had to put an IV in my arm, As she was trying to find a vein, Marvelous stumbled in to one of my Skeleton's in the closet. Marvelous said "What happened here"? I said "I used to cut myself,

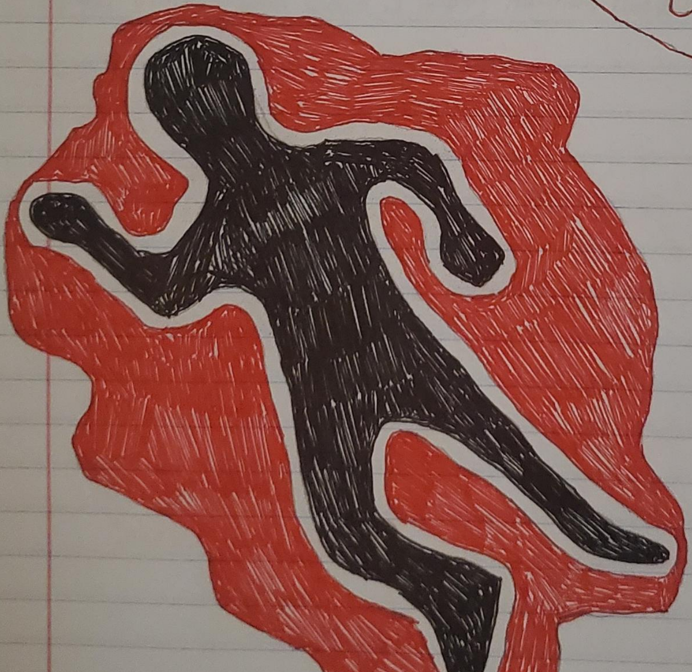
BODY BAGS



I saw Marvelous again. When I got admitted yesterday Marvelous thought it was a coincidence that she got another patient like me. No it was just me.

I told Marvelous in case I didn't see her later that I'm really glad we met. Before she left Marvelous stopped by to say bye. I told Marvelous I'm glad we met & that she have tremendous success in the future. We then ~~shook hands~~. held hands

It was like that scene in Battlestar Galatica episode Kobol's Last Gleaming when Dualla is holding Adama's hand after he got shot.

COMBATIVE

Sheri paid me a visit before the surgery. I was sleeping like a baby when they came in.

Paramore Misery Business

I wore the biggest smile

and said "Hi Sheri how've you been,

The Evil Within 2

We have got to stop meeting like this.

I had to get 2 surgeries. I tried to stay awake for the 2nd one, I was expecting this chick named Mary, so when this nurse came in "I said are you mary". She said "No I'm not married", No I said are you MARY". She was digging my Punisher tattoo. Anyway's that anesthesia doesn't bullshit, I didn't even notice when the light's went off.

When I got out of surgery I got a new nurse. It was this dude Shawn, Shawn "Si Señor You're going to be ok". Their have been patient's in worse shape then me & it could have been worse. I can kinda see why guy nurse's get so much shit. I had like 6 or 7 different nurse's & only one of them was a dude. We bullshitted about man stuff, stuff I probably couldn't talk about w/ the female staff. It's really too bad he had to go. After like 2 day's he got reassigned. I said "why?" It was like that scene in Blue Streak. I wished I would have asked why the hell I kept getting a different nurse. The only reason I could think of was so the nurse's don't get attached. That & IF the nurse had the bad luck to get stuck w/ a combative patient. But I never started shit. I said "See ya dude thank's for listening to me vent". Shawn had to leave in the middle of the night. I said "Where are you going?" Who's going to bring me my med's? He said this nurse ~~Summer~~ Summer was going to take over

THE GIRL WITH THE SUNFLOWER HEADBAND

It sucked that Shawn had to go. While it was nice to have girl's wait on me hand & foot. It was pretty cool to have a dude I could talk about guy shit W/. They gave me this plastic bottle to piss in. It's way easier & less painful then standing up & walking to the fucking bathroom. Summer came in just as I was finishing taking a leak. I told Summer "Just give me 2 minute's. I told Summer to let me see her W/ out her mask. Homegirl I'm going to be touching myself to you til next July.

I told Summer "My God has forsaken me. Probably for making fun of poor people". Summer said "I don't think God care's IF you mock poor people". Every time Summer would check on me I would say let me see your face. Summer said "Why so you know I'm human?" Summer kept calling me dear.

Dazed and confused

I love those redhead's

After like 5 time's of telling summer to let me see her face she finally said no. When she came in one time she said "Do you need anything?" I said "yeah can I see your face". Summer said "Besides that?". NO. I told Summer thanx for taking care of me but she didn't say shit.

The Rules of Attraction

I fucked UP

Summer child

Summer was rubbing alcohol & touching my skin trying to find a vein. After she was done I was as horny as a chinchilla & I had to number 3. I thought about jacking off on the bed but there was a fucking camera recording everything & I don't want anybody walking in on me, so I told this assistant after taking my vital's I had to take a shit. Trying to make some glue in my condition was fucking hard as hell I almost didn't do it, 1rst that fucking gown kept getting in my way. 2nd there was no lock on the door. 3rd since my foot was fucked up I had to balance myself on one foot. I said fuck it & just leaned against a wall, 4th I never seen a fucking toilet like this, It was a toilet & a sink

It took me like 20 minute's to finally kill some kitten's but I finally did it, I told the assistant that I was struggling to take a shit. In hindsight that probably wasn't such a good idea, IF I hadn't romance myself maybe I wouldn't have been prescribed sennocide, I just had to touch myself to Summer, I told her to take her mask off & show me her face. Kind of like that scene in Gladiator, SUMMER'S Fucking HAWT Pun intended & not intended. As a joke summer said "why so you know that I'm a real person?" She was cute & adorable, And she had a very kind hearted demeanor, She would also say "How are you doing dear?" every time she

Coldest
City

Once again the nurse that said I shouldn't be driving came in & told me the same shit. Not again man. Fuck that shit I'm going home. To pass the time I mainly just watched a lot of tv. These fucking room's have got to come w/ an Xbox. I mainly watched Impractical Joker's & South Park. I did see some movies, Office Space, Tomb Raider, The Fast and the Furious. IF one of the assistant's walked in during the "This is yours weather you win or lost scene". Yikes awkward. I also saw John Wick 1 & 2 back to back. They came on twice. When that sign language chick swears in sign they censored it. This was like at 10pm. When they showed the movie again later like after midnight. They didn't censore anything & I mean anything. Not even the fucking F word. I never thought you could say the F word without getting bleeped. I actually haven't seen tv since I bought my 1st cellphone back in like 2013.

Got this new nurse Stevie. I told Stevie IF she could show me her face. Well you have seen me. Now's it's my turn to see you. Stevie said she would show me when she was by the door. The grand reveal was funny as hell. Stevie came in just as I was fininshing ~~using the~~ taking a piss. These nurse's have the worst timing in the world I swear. I told Stevie IF she ~~cot~~ could show me her face again. Why? Just cause. She said "You already seen me. She then throws the peace sign.

As they were wheeling me out I saw Marvelous. We saw each other from a distance. Marvelous was walking in the opposite direction then turned around. When she saw me she started walking towards me. Marvelous started waving. I said "I'm finally getting out of here." We held hand's & I told Marvelous "Have a nice life". As I was getting in the elevator Marvelous waved one last time. She actually called me by name. My name is hard to pronounce.

I saw Sheri as I was getting discharged. I was like "Sheri is that you?" I started waving & I told Sheri "Thanx for everything".

Sheri said "IF You need anything come back."

One thing I really ~~dug~~ dig about the nurse's was how instead of just saying here's your fucking meds bye. They would be a little more gentle. Their bedside manner just made me melt.

I could end this on a positive note but I'm not gonna just because life isn't always a feel good movie. Summer gave me a gift. It was a camouflaged heart shaped pillow. I loved it. It came W/ a card. When me & Summer started growing apart I was thinking of throwing the pillow in the trash. I kinda wanted her to see. It'd be my way of saying "here's what I think of your fucking present you goddamn bitch".
I'm keeping it, But only because it was made by some church. It would have been fucked up IF I threw it away just to spite Summer, Also the card was moving. Had I not known I would have just thrown it in the ~~tras~~ trash. Even though I have my issue's W/ Summer I'm gonna hold on to it.

Sout Park
Tiolet Paper

I talked to Angela from ~~Libertiy~~ Liberty Mutual. Angela was handling my claim, Worker's comp, & my medical bill's. Dude it was $32,000 including the ambulance. Angela said I'm going to start getting medical supplies in the ~~mall~~ mail. She said hope things work out for you. You'll be alright
Wow there's kindness in her voice.

I tip my hat off to people before the 20th century. I had a hard enought time W/ modern health care & medicine. I can't imagine what it must have been like for people back then.

You know back when I was working at BCW. I rode the rail & I would pass through Parkland while it was still under construction. Everyday moar & moar of it was completed. Until one day construction was finished. I thought it was going to be an office building at 1rst, I used to pass through Parkland all the time. Dude I never thought I'd end up in there.

I Wait to thank Shawn Amanda, christy, Shori, courtney, John, Karen, Romero, Bill, Kim, Andrew, Jessica, Alex & even Summer [redacted], Special thank's to Dr Thomas for putting my foot back together.

Special thank's to Dr Johnson, I still can't believe he came to see me on his day off.

Special thanx to Angela. Her voice was music to my ear's, I would have gone bankrupt had it not been for Angela $32,000 dollar's. Where I'm I supposed to get the money.

A very special thanx to my 2 salt of the earth homegirl's Marvelous & Iveth. Homegirl's I would shoot myself in the foot IF it meant ya'll would take care of me again. thanx for making me feel like I matter.

I also want to thank Jeremy, Laura, and Gari, ~~&~~ and chanel, for calling the ambulance & taking care of all my medical bills. Dude it was $30,000 dollars.

I went to go drop off medical paper's at UPS. I texted Geri & sarah. I was talking to HR & just as I was about to leave, Geri Laura & Jeremy show up. It was like that scene in the Outsider's when Steve & Two Bit see Pony Boy at his house after the fire, Jeremy said I was the biggest gangster he's ever met because I was eerily calm the whole time, Laura said I was a beast because when I got injured Laura said on a scale of 1 to 10 how bad was the pain I said 3, At that time when it barely happened it looked worst than it felt, once they got me to the hospital the pain intensified,

Laura said "Where's the beanie?" I said "It's going to be a while before I start wearing it again, Laura held the door open for me, I said "I will see you guy's in like 3 or 4 Month's,

I wear a beanie that say's "killin' it" to work

Geri would go on to quit before I got back. And ~~Lau~~ Laura quit like a month or 2 after I got back.

10/6 MOMENT of

AWESOME

I saw Iveth for the 1st time in 3 Week's. Homegirl Was looking good. When Dr Johnson took the dressing off I told Iveth "don't look". It was like that scene in Frozen. No the other fucking Frozen. The one that came out in 2010. Dr. Johnson was telling me the plan but I wasn't paying attention. I was leering at Iveth the whole time. She changed the dressing & put a new one. She was so gentle. While she was changing it I got a text message & I jumped, Iveth thought I was having a spasm but I told her my phone just freaked me out. I told Dr Johnson "When can I walk again?" He said "Next month".

I seemed Eager, Iveth said "You want to go back to work?" I said "Yeah. Being at home all day & only going out to go to appointment's is driving me crazy." I was waiting like an hour to be seen & the whole appointment lasted like 10 minutes. IF that. As I was leaving I caught up W/ Iveth, I told her

Bride of Chuckie "Hi how you been?"

She looks different. She has platinum blonde hair now. It look's nice.

I told Iveth "You look different". Iveth said "I feel differen". I said * Sailor Moon see you around". Iveth said the same thing. That's the 2nd time that's happened where I say Sailor Moon see you around & the girl I'm talking to say's the same thing, I had my mask off the whole time & I can't believe Iveth never said put your mask back on, I wish I could have told her to let me see what she looks like * Eyes Wide Shut but I fucking forgot, I got a pretty good idea but I really want to see her face,

It was so awesome to see her. I missed her dirty blonde hair. I missed the way she would tell me to put my mask back on. I'm not going to see her again for 3 Week's. IF she's even there when I come back. And I might never see her again after that.

I was trying the whole no fap thing but later that day I touched myself while thinking about Iveth
I love you so much Iveth,

We are so last year
I just wanted you to know
I think about you every night
When I fall asleep
You are in my dreams
And just like in a movie
The one you want to see
With a happy ending

Kissing
COUSINS

I was horsing around w/ my cousin [redacted]. I couldn't keep my fucking hands off of her. My brother mendez told me when she 1rst arrived. I was like Holy Shit! I thought he was lying at 1rst. She was one of the 1rst to arrive. I almost didn't chat w/ my aunt. Her mom. Is she still pissed over what happened the last time. I decided to break the ice to see what would happen. And it went well. My Aunt wasn't sore or anything. I met her dad. I dont know IF we ever met before. My aunt was laughing at my dumb joke's. I know I say it all the time but they are dumb. that shit happened & I'm writing about it right now. They were that dumb.

I ~~actua~~ll actually do remember some of the stupid shit I was saying. I told them about how I had a job interview that I ~~fuck~~ fucked up at Tom Thumb. It even piked [redacted] interest. I was actually switching between talking to this ese miguel & my aunt between songs. I then said fuck it & started stroken Eileen's hair. Holy shit that was so ~~aw~~ awesome. She didn't say anything but her mom said knock it off. I then tried to hold her hand but she wouldn't let me. I had to walk pass her to talk to my ese. Every time I had to walk pass her I would run my hand through her hair. She didn't do anything the 1rst couple times. But then she started swatting my hand away. I couldn't believe it but I had an audience besides [redacted] mom & dad. Whatever let them watch. As a joke they said I fucked up her hair. My aunt actually pushed me away after like 10 times. [redacted] said "Your petting me like I was a dog." Not just any dog. A pure breed primped Poodle.

Since she wouldn't let me touch her hair I was just touching whatever. Her arm her elbow her hand. She was wearing a headband & it was driving me crazy. She was the only girl who was wearing one. I kept at it. [redacted] kept recoiling & her mom kept pushing me away. After a while [redacted] left. I was talking to my ese when it happened. I waited to long & by the time I caught up w/ her she was gone. I don't know when I'll get to see her again.

I ~~can~~ can't believe some of my ese's were giving me shit for talking to my aunt & [redacted]. She still wears a headband. probably the same one she was wearing when we 1st met. Headbands turn me the ~~fuke~~ fuck on just because girls rarely wear them. I really dig stroking [redacted] hair & trying to hold her hand each chance I got. She kept resisting. I think I might have driven her away. She was one of the 1st guest to leave. I fucked up.

~~I~~ I love you so ~~much~~ much [redacted]

[redacted] still want's to be a teacher I told her

Saving private Ryan "That's something I could never do. Not after the way me & my friend's treated our teacher. she & her mom just started laughing.

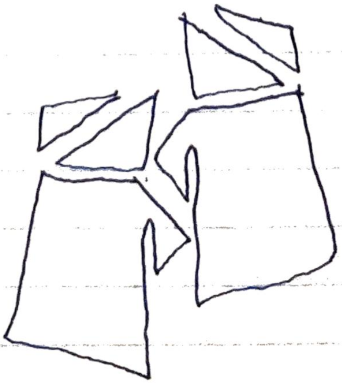
knocked Down But Not knocked out



I couldn't believe it but Melania recognized me by my voice. For the last 2 month's I was on emergency leave. I just went back last week. I didn't think anyone was going to recognize me. But Melanie heard my voice & I was had, the cashier didn't recognize me either, only when the boss lady said something did the cashier know it was me. He recognize me by my tattoo. It was wild as hell because he was doing the job of 2 people & he was pissed that this dude saw him struggling & didn't help him.

Biön

I actually had to make 2 trips because I bought so much shit it all didn't fit in 1 cart. The 2nd time I bagged all the groceries just because I might as well get used to it & because I felt bad for the guy. After the cat was out of the bag everybody started coming up to me. Telling me Where you been? When are you coming back? What the hell happened? That's another one of the reason's I hate wearing these fucking mask. I could be walking by somebody I know & not even know it. Well What do you know I do matter after all.
